

Heather Austin-Skaret has a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) from the University of Manitoba and a law degree from the University of Ottawa. She was an articling student at Gold Gulliver, which evolved to Gold Gilbert Mann and then Mann & Associates. In late 2003, she helped form the current partnership, Mann Lawyers LLP, where she remains a Partner. Her practice includes estate planning and administration as well as commercial and residential real estate work. She has developed extensive experience in the area of estate planning and administration, which allows her to assist clients at some of their most difficult times. She is constantly updating her knowledge as a member of S.T.E.P. and the Ottawa Estate Planning Council.
