

Andre Martin is the leader of the business law team at Mann Lawyers. His practice areas include corporate and commercial law, professional corporations, tax planning and reorganizations, business acquisitions and sales, commercial leasing, franchise law for both Franchisors and Franchisees, financing, private company securities law, technology law & licensing, and general business law. Born in Ottawa and raised in Calgary, he obtained a Bachelor of Commerce (Highest Honours) degree from Carleton University and a Baccalaureate of Law (Magna Cum Laude) from the University of Ottawa. He has since practiced in small and mid-sized firm settings, as well as at the large national firm level and uses his considerable experience to assist business clients in an efficient, client-focused manner. He is a member of the Ottawa Board of Trade and the County of Carleton Law Association. In addition, he is the past President of the Capital Business Association and is a member of the Board of the Ottawa Dragon Boat Festival and Foundation.